Conquer Colorado on BC Family Day Long Weekend

Friday February 9 - Monday February 12

We will fly to Denver Friday night and immediately drive to the heart of one of the premier ski/ride zones in America, staying at an Airbnb in Silverthorne, CO. We will start the extended weekend at Vail (#8 all-time on my list), followed by Beaver Creek on Sunday (home mountain for Lindsay Vonn) & Breckenridge (#19) on Monday before driving back to Denver International for the flight home.

The group will be renting an SUV together and sharing Airbnb accommodations. Please RSVP and make payment in full no later than January 29!!!

Prices include transportation (shared SUV) to/from Denver International to our Airbnb and to/from the three resorts we will visit. It also includes shared accommodations.

Prices do NOT include airfare, ski passes, transportation to your home, airport, or any meals. There are plenty of supermarkets nearby the Airbnb. All three resorts will be complimentary for Epic full Pass holders.
